

25th February 1994

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Greg Chako is a musician of an extremely high calibre who has entertained members of the Royal Hong Kong Yacht Club on many occasions over the past few years.

He has played at a great variety of events from the Yacht Club Ball to New Years Eve to smaller more personal evenings and his versatility as a performer has been a great advantage.

When organising social events the punctuality and professionalism of performers is always uppermost in my mind and Greg has never failed me in this respect. His dedication to the job in hand goes much further than simply turning up to perform on the night and he is always ready to meet and offer suggested programmes or talk around a problem ensuring that all parties concerned are satisfied with the performance.

I wish Greg the greatest success in all future ventures. The Yacht Club's loss is surely someone else's gain.

Sharon Whiting

Sharon Whiting
Activities Manager/Editor Ahoy!